

PowerCheck

saves you money and time.

PowerCheck automatically pays your utility bill from your checking account, saving you money and bill paying time.

To apply for PowerCheck, complete the below form and return it to us along with this month's payment. This form will authorize your bank to automatically deduct the amount of your future utility bills from your checking account. Be sure to fill in your Federal Reserve Routing Number and Account Number which appears on the bottom of your checks (see illustration). PLEASE also include a blank, voided check.

You will still receive your regular utility statement. The amount will be collected by your bank around the 25th of each month.
